

Music Academy of the West

AUDITIONS

for the 2013 Summer School and Festival

Kotor, Montenegro

February 9th & 10th 2013

For 65 years the Music Academy of the West has trained the next generation of great classical musicians by providing opportunities for advanced study and intensive performance in a uniquely beautiful and supportive environment. Recognized as one of the world's preeminent summer music programs for gifted pre-professional classical musicians, the Academy offers an experience that is at once intimate and intense, highly personalized, and deeply collaborative. Applicants from all over the world seek the opportunity to study and perform at the Academy. 1500 applications were received for the 2012 program. 138 Fellows are selected to enroll.

During eight weeks each summer, Academy Fellows refine and enhance their skills with each other and with the outstanding faculty and guest artists who join them. Together they participate in 200 musical events, including masterclasses, chamber music, individual weekly lessons, recitals, orchestra concerts, a concerto competition, a vocal competition, and a fully-staged opera.
